PRESS RELEASE

ZEBEDEE JONES, New Paintings 18 May - 22 June 2013

Slewe Gallery is pleased to announce the upcoming exhibition with new paintings by British artist Zebedee Jones. It will open May 18 and will run through June 22. His fourth exhibition at Slewe Gallery will focus on a series of small paintings he recently made.

Jones' paintings are built up by adding and scraping off various layers of paint. They look more as sculptural objects while the edges are bordered by thick curls of paint. Colour is an important subject. Also characteristic is the attention paid to the skin of the painted surface. His paintings look monochrome at first but show subtle differences in colour later. These subtle shades of colour along with the highly tactile surface give the paintings a strong expression.

Jones was born in 1970 in London, where he still lives and works. After his study at Camberwell College of Art and later Chelsea College, he started showing at Karsten Schubert in 1995, later at Waddington Galleries and recently he showed at Agnews Gallery in London. He had also several shows at Danese in New York. Since 2001 he exhibits regularly at Slewe Gallery.

The gallery is open from Wednesday to Saturday from 1 to 6 pm and by appointment. For more information please contact the gallery.
