Dan Walsh
Works on Paper

@ Slewe Gallery, Amsterdam
6 September – 11 October 2014

Opening Saturday 6 Sept. 5-7 pm

Slewe Gallery is pleased to announce the opening of the new exhibition by American artist Dan Walsh. Walsh, known for his playful minimal abstract paintings, will show now new works on paper. There will be four new series of drawings with ink, pencil and watercolour and three screen prints he recently made with Pace Prints in New York. The exhibition opens Saturday September 6 and lasts until October 11, 2014.

Dan Walsh, born in 1960 in Philadelphia (US), is one of the most remarkable abstract artists in the United States today. He was one of the participating artists at the Whitney Biennial in New York earlier this year. He makes minimal abstract paintings, which are playful in their use of process and historical references. In addition he makes drawings and books. This exhibition, especially focusing on his works on paper, will be his fifth solo show at Slewe Gallery in Amsterdam.

After his study at Hunter College Walsh started showing his work at Paula Cooper Gallery in New York and several galleries in Europe. His prints and limited-edition books were subject of a solo show at the Cabinet des Estampes du Musée d'Art et d'histoire in Geneva (CH). Walsh's work was also included in important group shows, such as the Ljubljana Biennial in Slovenia and the Lyon Biennial of Contemporary Art in 2003. His works have been collected by several internationally important private and public art collections, such as the MoMA in New York, FNAC in Paris and AKZO Nobel Art Foundation in Amsterdam. In 2012 the Rode Island School of Design Museum presented a solo show of his paintings and in 2013 the Speerstra Foundation in Lausanne (CH) showed Table of Contents, a series of 11 paintings, especially made for this occasion. He lives and works in Brooklyn, New York.

The gallery is open from Wednesday to Saturday from 1 to 6 pm and by appointment. For more information please contact the gallery.

Slewe Gallery will be participating at Amsterdam Drawing from September 18 through 21. For more information please visit www.amsterdamdrawing.nl
