ALAN CHARLTON New Paintings

16 May – 20 June 2015

Opening
Saturday 16 May 5-7 pm

Slewe Gallery is pleased to announce the opening of the exhibition with new works by the British artist Alan Charlton (*1948, Sheffield). The exhibition will show new Triangle paintings, specially made for this occasion. It will open Saturday May 16 and will last up to June 20, 2015. It will be his second show at Slewe Gallery.

Alan Charlton is one of the most famous representatives of the minimal and conceptual art in England. For more than 40 years his work consists of pure monochrome grey paintings, made with acrylic paint on canvas. When he was twenty-one years old, while still studying at the Camberwell School of Art, he took the decision to make only grey paintings. For Charlton the colour grey is the most emotional and diverse colour. All his works are based on the module of 4,5 cm. Their balanced compositions of mostly several grey panels give the paintings a monumental and specific expression.

Since the seventies Charlton had numerous important museum and gallery shows internationally. In the Netherlands he had solo shows at art & project and at the Stedelijk Museum Amsterdam and Van Abbemuseum, in Germany at Konrad Fischer Galerie and at Musuem Kurhaus Kleve a.o. In Italy at Castello di Rivoli, Torino, in Switzerland at galerie Tschudi and in London at Annely Juda Gallery and at the Tate Gallery. His work has been collected worldwide by prestigious public and private collections.

The gallery will be open from Wednesday to Saturday from 1 to 6 pm or by appointment. For more information please contact the gallery or visit www.slewe.nl.

From May 27 to 31 Slewe Gallery will participate at Amsterdam Art Fair, a new art fair for contemporary art in Amsterdam, to be held in the Kunsthal Citroën, located in the former Citroën garage at the Stadionplein in Amsterdam. For more information please visit www.amsterdamartfair.nl.
