Slewe Gallery is pleased to announce the (re)opening of the gallery after more than two months of temporarily closure with a group exhibition of new works, made during the recent lockdown by some locally based artists.

Participating artists are Adam Colton, Alice Schorbach, Jan van Munster, Joris Geurts, Krijn de Koning, Lon Pennock, Michael Jacklin, Paul Drissen, Roos Theuws, Ruud Kuijer and Steven Aalders.

The exhibition will run from May 29 to June 27. The gallery will be open according to the regulations of the RIVM. From now on the public opening hours of the gallery will be Friday and Saturday from 1 to 6 pm and by appointment. There will be no special opening, but please pass by one of these days or make an appointment for a private view. The gallery includes enough space to have safe distance.

The next exhibition with new works by Martin Gerwers (*1963, DE) will open in September.
